BWC Financial to buy back 50,000 shares

San Francisco Business Times

Walnut Creek-based BWC Financial Corp. said its board of directors approved a resolution to buy up to 50,000 shares of company stock.

The banking firm currently has 3.6 million shares outstanding. Transactions for the stock purchase will take place periodically, depending on market conditions. Shares purchased under this program will be retired from circulation.

BWC Financial Corp. is the holding company for Bank of Walnut Creek and BWC Mortgage Services.
